

Larissa Sarakaeva – Sponsor of the 15 FABULOUS door prizes that will be given out at the upcoming New Year event, Revelion 2009

“It’s critical that you make the right decision about who will handle some of the most important financial investments in your life.”

When trying to sell a property, or when looking to buy a property either for personal use or as an investment opportunity, choosing the right real estate agent can help you save thousands of dollars. Make the right decision by choosing the real estate agent that will dedicate the time and effort into doing what is best for YOU as her client.

“I go by the rule of treating the transactions of my clients as if they were my own.” – Larissa Sarakaeva, Sales Representative
